Dear Partner,

Thank you for your interest in the Queen's Conference on Education (QCE). We appreciate your time and consideration in reviewing the sponsorship opportunities included in this package. Your support plays a crucial role in helping us deliver a meaningful, engaging, and accessible experience for all our delegates.

We are excited to invite you to be part of the 24th annual Queen's Conference on Education—a long-standing tradition and the largest student-run education conference at Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario. Building on the success of last year's event, our 2026 team is committed to growing the conference and continuing to provide a space where education professionals, students, and future leaders can connect and collaborate.

This year, our theme is "Teaching Beyond the Stars: Charting the Future of Education". As the world of education continues to evolve, our conference will serve as a platform for critical reflection, innovation, and progress. Delegates will have the opportunity to engage with thought-provoking speakers, participate in interactive workshops, and take part in discussions that explore how education can adapt to meet the needs of tomorrow's learners.

QCE is designed for individuals passionate about improving and reimagining education. Whether delegates are preparing to enter the classroom, already working in the field, or pursuing related paths, our conference provides opportunities to grow, share, and be inspired.

Partnering with QCE allows you to contribute to a conference that values inclusivity, professional development, and educational advancement. Your support will help us maintain financial accessibility for our delegates and ensure we continue to host a dynamic, high-impact event.

Thank you again for your consideration. We look forward to the possibility of working together.

Sincerely,

The Queen's Conference on Education 2026 Team

WHAT IS QCE?

The Queen's Conference on Education (QCE) is a leading professional development event that brings together current and aspiring educators, along with individuals who are passionate about shaping the future of education.

Organized annually by students in the Faculty of Education at Queen's University, QCE serves as a dynamic platform for learning, collaboration, and personal growth. The conference explores meaningful topics that extend beyond the traditional classroom—such as equity, creativity, leadership, and mental wellness—equipping delegates with the tools to inspire change in diverse educational settings.

In 2026, QCE will welcome over 250 delegates from Queen's and universities across Ontario. Through thought-provoking keynotes, interactive workshops, and engaging networking opportunities, attendees will gain the insight and confidence needed to launch impactful, forward-thinking careers in education.

CONFERENCE THEME

The theme for QCE 2026—Teaching Beyond the Stars: Charting the Future of Education—is inspired by the spirit of exploration, discovery, and possibility. Just as space exploration challenges us to think beyond current boundaries, this theme invites educators to reflect on the future of teaching and learning in an evolving world.

QCE 2026 offers a space to engage with new ideas, share diverse perspectives, and reimagine the role of education in shaping our collective future. Whether addressing equity, pedagogy, leadership, policy, or innovation, we welcome voices that challenge convention and inspire progress.

Whether you are a student teacher, a seasoned professional, or an advocate for educational change, we invite you to join us. Together, we are charting a course toward a more inclusive, imaginative, and forward-thinking future in education.

BENEFITS OF SPONSORSHIP

Your organization will be verbally and visibly recognized during the introduction and closing of our conference. Your logo and name will be promoted in our Delegate handbook which is distributed to 300 young professionals and industry leaders.

We will provide the opportunity to promote an image that is community-based and future-oriented. Your business will be attracted to a relevant, innovative, and professional conference. A conference that is featuring leading professionals and innovative strategies.

Sponsors will be promoted on social media platforms in a "Thanking Our Sponsors" post. As well as in the "Sponsors" section on the QCE website with an attached link to the Sponsor's website.

Your organization will have exposure to the Queen's community, as well as students from many other universities across Ontario.
